The City of Norman is pleased to announce the release of its 2013 Annual Report. We have highlighted some significant achievements, to include weather-related events; public safety and justice; parks, recreation and library services; community and economic developments; transportation improvements; environmental and utility services; strategic support; revenue/expenditure information; and, recognitions and awards achieved by our City and our employees.

Norman is wonderful place to live, largely due to its quality schools, abundant recreational opportunities and the highest commitment to public safety. The City seeks to provide the most efficient and effective level of public service to our residents and businesses, and we are proud of the dedication of our employees in serving and making a difference in our community.

The 2013 Annual Report can be accessed through our website at www.normanok.gov/content/2013-annual-report. We hope you find this information useful and thank you for taking the time to stay informed about your community and local government.
